 Examiner's signature, if required

1. Mr. Thappeta was reminded that since the Examiner does not have negotiating authority, no statements or agreements made by the Examiner are binding to the Office.
2. A draft response to the final Office action of 12/24/2004 was discussed, which includes a proposed Affidavit under 35 CFR 1.131.
3. Mr. Thappeta was informed that the proposed documents submitted to show evidence of conception appeared, after a cursory overview, to be better than the evidence submitted in a prior Affidavit. He was reminded to sufficiently describe the document and how it shows conception. He was also advised to make it clear on the record that the document was created prior to the effective date of the Barrett reference.
4. Regarding the proposed evidence of diligence, Mr. Thappeta was reminded that the entire period must be accounted for, and that an assertion that Applicant was diligent is not likely to be sufficient evidence of diligence. (See MPEP 2138.06).
5. No other formalities or problems were noted.
